

Client: Nationwide Media Group
Source: The Daily Mirror (Main)
Date: 19 November 2009
Page: 69
Circulation: 1306394
Size: 112cm2
Value: 3605.28

TESCO Bank has begun recruiting team leaders to work at two new customer service centres in Newcastle and Glasgow.

The Glasgow centre will employ 800 people and Newcastle centre will eventually create 1,000 jobs, with the first 500 in place during 2010.

The bank says recruitment for other roles will follow soon and it is setting up a recruitment website, www.careers.tescobank.com which will be live from the end of this month.

In the meantime, visit www.tesco.com/careers.

BUSINESS Yorkshire is a free exhibition at Doncaster Racecourse on November 25 from 8.15am-7pm and November 26 from 8.15am-4pm. It will have more than 70 exhibitors, keynote speakers in the Business Link Innovation Lounge, informative seminars in the How To Theatre, speed networking, investment advice in the Angels' Den and the Google University. For more information, visit www.business-yorkshire.co.uk.

BUSINESS Startup, which comes to London's Olympia on November 26 and 27 from 10am-5pm, aims to provide inspiration for starting or expanding a business. Speakers at the show include Richard Farleigh of Dragons' Den, Richard Reed, co-founder of Innocent Drinks and Levi Roots of Reggae Reggae Sauce fame.

To find out more and register for free tickets, visit www.bstartup.com.

WELSH company Waste Technique, which specialises in recycling old computer equipment, is holding an open day at Llwynypia College in Tonypanyd on November 26 from 10am-4pm. For more information, call 0797 199 6271.