

Business Yorkshire attracts 130 exhibitors

Business Yorkshire, the region's premier business-to-business exhibition, returns to Doncaster Racecourse from 25 to 26 November. Now in its second year, the conference is designed specifically for time-poor business owners, directors and entrepreneurs. The free-to-attend event features more than 30 seminars, speed-networking sessions, angel investment opportunities, top keynote speakers and special offers from more than 130 local exhibiting companies. For more information on visiting or exhibiting, or for your free ticket, visit www.business-yorkshire.co.uk.